

Guglielmo Cicerchia,

born in Lucca on 27/10/1974 learns to walk on a beach in Sardinia and from there to the sea the step is short, the sea is his 360 ° passion and the union with photography comes from the passion passed down by his Father «Pampi». In the competitive field, for several years he has been part of the FIPSAS Underwater Photography Blue Club, he won the Italian Championship for Underwater Photography Companies 3 times and the individual in 2018. In 2019, 2021, 2023 he graduated World Champion of Wide Angle Underwater Photography with Model with his assistant Iwona Molsa, in 2023 for the first time he is also World Champion of Creative Underwater Photography. He has also obtained numerous awards in National and International Underwater Photography competitions.

With Folco Quilici and Luca Tamagnini he collaborated on the series of books on Italian marine protected areas.